

BALANCES.

LETTER

FROM

THE COMPTROLLER OF THE TREASURY,

TRANSMITTING

A list of balances on the books of the Register of the Treasury which have remained unsettled more than three years.

DECEMBER 8, 1834.

Read, and laid upon the table.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

Comptroller's Office, December 6, 1834.

SIR: In compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress passed the 3d of March, 1809, entitled "An act further to amend the several acts for the establishment and regulation of the Treasury, War, and Navy Departments," and of the act passed the 3d March, 1817, entitled "An act to provide for the prompt settlement of public accounts," I have the honor to transmit, herewith, a list of the balances which have remained unsettled or appear to have been due more than three years prior to the 30th September, 1834, on the books of receipts and expenditures in the office of the Register of the Treasury.

I have the honor to be,

With great respect,

Your obedient servant,

JOS. ANDERSON, Comptroller.

HON. JOHN BELL,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

LIST OF BALANCES on the books of the Register of the Treasury, which have remained unsettled, or appear to have been due three years prior to the 30th of September, 1834; stated in conformity with the second section of the act of Congress of the 3d of March, 1809, entitled "An act to amend the several acts for the establishment and regulation of the Treasury, War, and Navy Departments."

Debtors' names and capacities.	Balances.	Remarks made in the Comptroller's office.	Remarks made by the Solicitor of the Treasury, derived from returns made to him by the district attorneys and others.
Alexander, Isaac, - - Agent of Board of Commissioners of Direct Tax, South Carolina.	$10,878 15	From the remarks on former reports it would seem that informal accounts had been rendered; if so, they were lost in the conflagration of the Treasury buildings in 1801. The representatives have been written to on the subject of sending duplicates, if in their power. No answer has been received. The propriety of the interposition of Congress, in this case, is respectfully submitted.
Appleton, John, - - - Commercial agent at Calais.	412 96	Informal accounts rendered to the Fifth Auditor.
Adams, John, - - - Late President of the United States, accommodation of his household.	12,898 00	Money advanced. A certificate was sent to the Treasury that the whole had been expended, which was not deemed a sufficient voucher by my predecessors. Respectfully submitted to Congress whether, under these circumstances, it may not be proper to remove the difficulties in the settlement by a special act.
Auldjo, Thomas, - - Consul at Cowes.	53 27	Balance on settlement in 1821. It is understood that he has been out of office many years.
Anstill, Jeremiah, - - Late clerk of the Southern District Court of Alabama; in relation to schooners Louisa and Marino, and their cargoes.	4,977 84	Has been directed to deposite the amount due in bank, to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States.

Blake, Edward, - - -	175 55	- - - - -	Judgment vs. representatives. Estate solvent. The district attorney instructed to cause execution to issue.
Late superint'dt of light-houses in South Carolina.
Butler, Thomas, - - -	1,030 55		Heretofore stated that informal accounts had been rendered; if so, they were destroyed by the enemy with the Treasury building in 1814. The propriety of the interposition of Congress is submitted.
Late commissioner for aiding persons injured by the insurgents of Pennsylvania.
Blakely, Josiah, - - -	5,074 59		Dead. Accounts rendered, but no vouchers. The propriety of legislative interference is submitted.
Late consul at St. Jago de Cuba.
Bayard, Stephen N., - - -	15,000 00		Accounts partly consumed by fire in 1801; previously examined by Auditor's chief clerk, from whose remarks, which are legible, it is believed that the money was expended for the public service. The propriety of legislative interference is submitted.
Late agent Board of Commissioners, New York.
Bulkely, John, & Son, - - -	3,200 00		Reported for suit January 17, 1831.
In relation to Mediterranean Powers.
Brent, Daniel C., - - -	167 19	- - - - -	Suit ordered January 25, 1831. Still pending.
Late marshal of Dist. Columbia.
Brooks, John, - - -	495 00		No account rendered; the amount to which he is entitled to credit for compensation and expenses cannot, therefore, be known. He was killed in the action of Lake Erie, and it is not known whether he left any estate or representatives. The propriety of the interposition of Congress is submitted.
Bearer of despatches from the Department of State.
Beasley, Reuben G., - - -	46,562 19		Relative to prisoners of war; arising principally from the want of vouchers in some cases, and the want of formal ones in others.
Consul at London.
Bourne, Sylvanus, - - -	1,586 60		Balance on last settlement, in 1819.
Consul at Amsterdam.
Bank of Columbia, - - -	49,225 66		Advanced on account of reimbursement of stocks, and interest on said advances.
Their general account.
Brent, Robert, - - -	57 87		Contingent account. Dead. Insolvent.
Late paymaster general,
